Austin Catholic High School Alumni Spotlight: Jacquelyn Eubanks, Class of 2015

Last month, Austin Catholic alumni and award-winning novelist Jacquelyn Eubanks released her newest book, a romantic comedy titled Five Years in Advance. Eubanks is the author of two other young adult novels: The Last Summer and The Last Time, both published while she was a high school student. Her latest novel is inspired by her grandmother, who passed away in 2016. "She instilled in me an obligation as a writer to bring joy to others through my work," Eubanks says. When she isn't busy writing, Eubanks does volunteer work, including going on mission trips and teaching Sunday School. Her books are available in paperback and Kindle editions on Amazon.com.

Austin in Action is a weekly column focusing on the events and students at Austin Catholic High School.
